Board Meeting

The Library Board of Directors will meet at 5:00 PM on Thursday, November 9th. The public is welcome to attend in the main level conference room. Those wishing to be included on the agenda should contact the Library Director Kate McBride.

GIVING THANKS BY GIVING BACK FOOD DRIVE

The library will collect nonperishable food items during regular operating hours from Monday, November 1st through Saturday, November 18th. For safety reasons, we ask for only in-date items and no rusty or dented cans. All food collected will be donated to a local food pantry.

Your donations are greatly appreciated. Thank you!

ACTIVITIES

Preschool Program

November 14th

10:30 AM - 11:15 AM

Located in the north basement meeting room.

Come join the fun!

Age ranges from birth to 5 years old

(No library card necessary.)

CRAFT-A-CARD

Make your own greeting card at the library! Stop in the conference room any time between 10:00 AM and 4:30 PM on November 22nd.

Supplies will be provided. Bring your creativity and a friend!

Free of charge.

No library card necessary.

This program is appropriate for all ages.

LOST: GOBBLE THE TURKEY

Every month in our newsletters, an animal will be hidden somewhere on any of the pages of the newsletter. The first person to find and return their newsletter with the animal circled to the circulation desk will be the winner. The winner of the month will win their choice of a free book from the sale room. Can you help find Gobble? Good luck!

This program is designed for ages 18 and older.

Giving Tree

The library is collecting warm winter accessories for area children in need. New hats, mittens, gloves, scarves, and socks may be hung on the tree from November 27th through December 11th. All items will be given to a local school for distribution. Thank you for helping warm young hearts this winter!

Dinosaur Program

November 4

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Recollections

"Recollections" is a revival of Salem Public Library's older adult program, an opportunity to gather and share memories on a central theme. While anyone is welcomed, content is designed for those who are at least 60 years of age. Programs will be held in the library's downstairs meeting room at 10:30 AM on the 2nd Wednesday of each month. Please use the outside ramp or stairs on the north side of the building. Library membership is not required and there is no fee for participation.

"The Day Kennedy Was Shot"

November 8

ACTIVITIES

Library Cards

Many Patrons will agree that their library card is one of the most important in their wallet. Getting a card is easy. Simply present a photo I.D. and proof of address. People living within the Salem city limits pay for library privileges through real estate and personal property taxes. So, there is not charge to sign up. Because folks living outside the city limits do not pay these taxes, they pay the library directly for the same privileges. The cost is $25.00 for a six month membership or $50.00 for an annual membership.

We also want to stress that anyone is allowed to use the library. The only reason you need a library card is to check out items. Even if you do not have a card, you are more than welcome to visit the library; find a place to read a book off the shelves; participate in programs; and so much more! There is also a paperback trade program where you can bring in pocket-sized paperbacks and exchange them for select pocket-sized paperbacks in our sale room. There is also always a 50¢ book sale. Discarded magazines are available and are free to take.

Please feel free to reach out to us at 573-729-4331 or visit us at the library. Library staff will be more than happy to answer any questions you may have!

REVIEW

Book Review: Arab Fairy Tale Feasts by Karim Ahrawi and Nahid Kazemi.

The approaching holiday season makes me think about cooking some of those dishes I remember from my past. This year I may add a few new dishes to my table.

As mentioned, I am a local author. Part of planning for a new novel found me searching for a Middle Eastern recipe. This led me to a delightful book “Arab Fairy Tale Feasts” by Karim Ahrawi and Nahid Kazemi.

Every culture seems to have fairy tales, even if the name is different. These can convey customs, beliefs, history, morality and more to children in an interesting way.

Middle Eastern countries have such stories too and some of them are in this big illustrated book of stories with recipes.

As adults we may not admit to reading fairy tales, but we do. So many novels are retellings of fairy tale stories set in different times with different characters, often with embellishments.

The fairy tales in this book reminded me of Aesop’s Fables as each ended with a moral. They also had a familiar feel to them as I can remember similar simple stories in fairy tale books.

As each story mentioned a food, the recipes followed the tales. Then came some short explanations of some character names and the ingredients that might be unfamiliar to many of us.

I, as many, get stuck in making the same recipes, maybe with a bit of variation, because they are familiar. One of the joys of reading or browsing through a new cookbook is finding new recipes.

There are lentil soups, meatballs in honey sauce, delicious cookies and more in this cookbook. All sound fairly easy to prepare. They will add a touch of the exotic to my cooking over the next winter.

A wide variety of cookbooks stand on the library shelves waiting to spice up holiday and everyday cooking. Adding some recipes from other countries or other sections of this country can make meals interesting.

“Araab Fairy Tale Feasts” can be found on Evergreen.
